- Platinum Liability incorporates covers that are traditionally purchased under three separate contracts. There are significant benefits in insuring a clients complete liability exposure, be it general, professional or management, under the one contract with the one insurer.
- Generally clients understand the importance of a liability policy and player accident cover, however they often overlook the professional risks of running a club, association or business. Platinum Liability has been structured in such a way that Management Liability coverage is an easy and affordable extension.
- Simplify and extend your clients cover.
- Grow your business whilst protecting your PI exposure.
