Claims Made Policy

Please note the Professional Indemnity & Management Liability sections of the Policy are offered on a Claims Made basis. Claims Made means that the Professional Indemnity & Management Liability section covers you for Claims made against you during the Period of Insurance specified in your Policy Schedule and notified to us during that Period of Insurance.

This means that the Professional Indemnity & Management Liability sections do not provide cover in relation to;

- Events which occurred prior to the same Period of Insurance or any earlier retroactive date stipulated in the Policy Schedule;
- Claims made against you after the expiry of the Period of Insurance even though the event giving rise to the Claim may have occurred during the Period of Insurance;
- Claims the possibility of which was intimated in any way prior to the commencement of the Period of Insurance;
- Claims rising from or attributable to any facts, circumstances or occurrences noted on the proposal for the current Period of Insurance or for any prior Period of Insurance or of which notice had been given under any previous policy;
- Claims rising from or attributable to any facts, circumstances or occurrences of which you were aware and knew (or ought reasonably to have realised) prior to the commencement of the Period of Insurance may give rise to a Claim.

For the purposes of the Professional Indemnity and Management Liability sections, a Claim means; any

- written or verbal demand for compensation or damages or other relief; or
- a civil proceeding seeking compensation or damages or other relief; or
- any criminal charge brought against You alleging a Wrongful Act; or
- a notice of charge, formal investigation order or notice requiring You to attend an inquiry or other proceedings ordered by an Inquiring Body.

As explained above, the Professional Indemnity section, by its terms, does not provide cover for Claims made after the expiry of the Period of Insurance cover provided by the Policy.

Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) applies to certain contracts of liability insurance (including Sections 2 & 3 of this Policy) and states 'Where the insured gave notice in writing to the insurer of facts that might give rise to a claim against the insured as soon as was reasonably practicable after the insured became aware of those facts but before the insurance cover provided by the contract expired, the insurer is not relieved of liability under the contract in respect of the claim, when made, by reason only that it was made after the expiration of the period of the insurance cover provided by the contract where the insured has given notice in writing to the insurer;

- of the facts that might give rise to a claim against the insured
- as soon as was reasonably practicable after the insured became aware of those facts, and
- before the expiry of the Period of Insurance.

Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

If we ask you questions that are relevant to our decision to insure you and on what terms, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to tell us, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Your duty of disclosure for renewals

Before you renew this contract of insurance, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

If we ask you questions that are relevant to our decision to insure you and on what terms, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions.

Also, we may give you a copy of anything you have previously told us and ask you to tell us if it has changed. If we do this, you must tell us about any change or tell us that there is no change.

If you do not tell us about a change to something you have previously told us, you will be taken to have told us that there is no change.

You have this duty until we agree to renew the contract.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to tell us, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Who Needs To Tell Us

It is important that you understand that you are answering our questions in this way for you and anyone else whom you want to be covered by the Policy.

AIG Australia Privacy Notice

This notice sets out how AIG collects, uses and discloses personal information about:

- you, if an individual; and
- other individuals you provide information about.

Further information about our Privacy Policy is available at www.aig.com.au or by contacting us at australia.privacy.manager@aig.com or on 1300 030 886.

How we collect your personal information

AIG usually collects personal information from you or your agents.

AIG may also collect personal information from:

- our agents and service providers;
- other insurers;
- people who are involved in a claim or assist us in investigating or processing claims, including third parties claiming under your policy, witnesses and medical practitioners;
- third parties who may be arranging insurance cover for a group that you are a part of;
- providers of marketing lists and industry databases; and
- publically available sources.

Why we collect your personal information

AIG collects information necessary to:

- underwrite and administer your insurance cover;
- maintain and improve customer service; and
- advise you of our and other products and services that may interest you.

You have a legal obligation under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose certain information. Failure to disclose information required may result in AIG declining cover, cancelling your insurance cover or reducing the level of cover, or declining claims.

To whom we disclose your personal information

In the course of underwriting and administering your policy we may disclose your information to:

- entities to which AIG is related, reinsurers, contractors or third party providers providing services related to the administration of your policy;
- banks and financial institutions for policy payments;
- assessors, third party administrators, emergency providers, retailers, medical providers, travel carriers, in the event of a claim;
- other entities to enable them to offer their products or services to you; and

AIG is likely to disclose information to some of these entities located overseas, including in the following countries: United States of America, United Kingdom, Singapore, Malaysia, the Philippines, India, Hong Kong, New Zealand as well as any country in which you have a claim and such other countries as may be notified in our Privacy Policy from time to time.

You may request not to receive direct marketing communications from AIG.

Access to your personal information

Our Privacy Policy contains information about how you may access and seek correction of personal information we hold about you. In summary, you may gain access to your personal information by submitting a written request to AIG.

In some circumstances permitted under the Privacy Act 1988, AIG may not permit access to your personal information. Circumstances where access may be denied include where it would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of other individuals, or where it would be unlawful.

Consent

If applicable, Your application includes a consent that You and any other individuals You provide information about consent to the collection, use and disclosure of personal information as set out in this notice.

Complaints

Our Privacy Policy also contains information about how you may complain about a breach of the applicable privacy principles and how we will deal with such a complaint.

Taxation Information

The amount of cover available under this Policy excludes Goods and Services Tax (GST).

If you are not registered for GST, in the event of a Claim we will reimburse you the GST component in addition to the amount that we pay.

The amount that we are liable to pay under this Policy will be reduced by the amount of any input tax credit that you are or may be entitled to Claim for the supply of goods or services covered by that payment.

If you are entitled to an input tax credit for the Premium you must inform us of the extent of that entitlement at or before the time you make a Claim under this Policy. We will not indemnify you for any GST liability, fines or penalties that arise from or are attributable to your failure to notify us of your entitlement (or correct entitlement) to an input tax credit on the Premium.

If you are liable to pay an Excess under this Policy, the amount payable will be calculated after deduction of any input tax credit that you are or may be entitled to Claim on payment of the Excess.

If you are unsure about the taxation implications of this Policy, you should seek advice from your accountant or tax professional.

Don't Prevent Our Right of Recovery

The Liability Policy contains a provision which states that if you surrender your right to seek recovery from another party for a loss covered by the Policy, we have a right to reject any Claim from you in relation to that loss.
