Claims Made Policy

Please note the Professional Indemnity & Management Liability sections of the Policy are offered on a Claims Made basis. Claims made means that the Professional Indemnity & Management Liability section covers you for claims made against you during the period of insurance specified in your Policy Schedule and notified to us during that period of insurance.

This means that the Professional Indemnity & Management Liability sections do not provide cover in relation to;

- Events which occurred prior to the period of insurance or any earlier retroactive date stipulated in the Policy Schedule;
- Claims made against you after the expiry of the period of insurance even though the event giving rise to the claim may have occurred during the period of insurance;
- Claims the possibility of which was intimated in any way prior to the commencement of the period of insurance;
- Claims rising from or attributable to any facts, circumstances or occurrences noted on the proposal for the current period of insurance or on any previous or of which notice had been given under any previous policy;
- Claims rising from or attributable to any facts, circumstances or occurrences of which you were aware and knew (or ought reasonably to have realised) prior to the commencement of the period of insurance may give rise to a claim.

For the purposes of the Professional Indemnity and Management Liability sections, a claim means:

- A writ, statement of claim, summons, application or other originating legal or arbitral process, cross-claim, counter claim or third or similar party notice for compensation;
- A written assertion of a right to or a demand for compensation

As explained above, the Professional Indemnity section, by its terms, does not provide cover for claims made after the expiry of the period of insurance cover provided by the Policy.

Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 provides that an insurer is not relieved from liability under a contract of insurance in respect of a claim by reason only that the claim was made after the expiry of the period of insurance cover provided by the contract where the insured has;

Given notice in writing to the insurer,

- of the facts that might give rise to a claim against the insured
- as soon as was reasonably practicable after the insured became aware of those facts, and
- before the expiry of the period of insurance.

Duty of Disclosure

This Policy is subject to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. Under that Act you have a duty of disclosure.

Before you take out insurance with us, you have a duty to tell us of everything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to our decision to insure you and to the terms of that insurance. If you are not sure whether something is relevant you should inform us anyway.

You have the same duty to inform us of those matters before you renew, extend, vary, or reinstate your contract of insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matters that;

- Reduce the risk
- Are common knowledge
- We know or, in the ordinary course of our business, ought to know, and
- We have indicated we do not want to know

If you do not comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to;

- Reduce our liability for any claim
- Cancel the contract
- Refuse to pay the claim
- Avoid the contract from its beginning, if your non-disclosure was fraudulent

Goods and Services Tax

The amount of cover you choose excludes Goods and Services Tax (GST). If you are not registered for GST, in the event of a claim we will reimburse you the GST component in addition to the amount that we pay. The amount that we are liable to pay under this Policy will be reduced by the amount of any input tax credit that you are or may be entitled to claim for the supply of goods or services covered by that payment.

If you are entitled to an input tax credit for the Premium you have paid, you must inform us of the extent of that entitlement at or before the time you make a claim under this Policy. We will not indemnify you for any GST liability, fines or penalties that arise from or are attributable to your failure to notify us of your entitlement (or correct entitlement) to an input tax credit on the premium. If you are liable to pay an Excess under this Policy, the amount payable will be calculated after deduction of any input tax credit that you are or may be entitled to claim on payment of the Excess. If you are unsure about the taxation implications of this Policy, you should seek advice from your accountant or tax professional.

Don't Prevent Our Right of Recovery

The Liability policy contains a provision which states that if you surrender your right to seek recovery from another party for a loss covered by the policy, we have a right to reject any claim from you in relation to that loss.
